Mr. Friedlander is a founding partner of Friedlander & Gorris, P.A., a litigation boutique recognized by Benchmark Litigation as “Delaware Firm of the Year” for 2015 and 2017. The 2020 and 2017 editions of The Best Lawyers in America recognized Mr. Friedlander as “Litigation – Mergers and Acquisitions ‘Lawyer of the Year’ for Wilmington, Delaware.” He has been profiled in The Wall Street Journal and named “Litigator of the Week” in The Am Law Litigation Daily. The current edition of Chambers USA states: “Joel Friedlander is held in the utmost regard by market commentators, who consider him ‘one of the top attorneys in Delaware.’”

Mr. Friedlander received his undergraduate degree, cum laude, and his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania. He was executive editor of the University of Pennsylvania Law Review. He is a member of the Board of Advisors of the University of Pennsylvania Institute of Law and Economics. Mr. Friedlander was a lecturer at University of Michigan Law School in 2020 and at Harvard Law School in 2019. He is an Adviser to the American Law Institute, Restatement of the Law, Corporate Governance. He is the author of eight law review articles, including, most recently:

“Confronting the Problem of Fraud on the Board,” 75(1) BUS. LAW. 1441 (Winter 2019 - 2020)

“Vindicating the Duty of Loyalty: Using Data Points of Successful Stockholder Litigation As a Tool for Reform,” 72(3) BUS. LAW 623 (Summer 2017)