PENN LAW’S
FOURTH VISUAL LEGAL
ADVOCACY ROUNDTABLE

So You Want to Be a Visual Legal Advocate?
Friday, October 22, 2010
9:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Levy Conference Center & Silverman 245A
34th & Chestnut Streets • Philadelphia, PA

Panels Will Include:

Images That Change Minds and Win Hearts: A Conversation with Archivists and Social Documentary Photographers, including John Pettit of the Urban Archives, Deborah Boyer, Project Manager for PhillyHistory.org, and photographer Harvey Finkle

Fair Use for the Visual Legal Advocate, including Professor Peter Jaszi of American University’s Law School and the Center on Social Media, and Professor Peter Decherney of Penn Cinema Studies

Constraints on Visual Legal Advocacy, including Professor Seth Kreimer of Penn Law School, and Dana L. Cook, D.S.W., of the Atlantic Center for Capital Representation and Mitigation Specialist in Commonwealth v. Mustafa Ali

Anyone wishing to attend should register in advance by emailing Anna Gavin, Events Coordinator of the Law School at agavin@law.upenn.edu.

Continuing Legal Education Credit
The Roundtable will provide a maximum of 5 hours of CLE credit, including ½ hour of ethics credit for the panel on images and ½ hour of ethic credit for the panel on constraints on visual legal advocacy. The cost for the day is $25 for public interest lawyers. Please indicate your intention to seek CLE credit when you communicate with Ms. Gavin about your attendance.

For more information contact Professor Regina Austin, Penn Law School, 3400 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, PA, 215-898-5185 or raustin@law.upenn.edu