ERRATA NOTICE

The University of Pennsylvania Journal of International Business Law regrets that Alfred W. Cortese & Kathleen L. Blaner, Civil Justice Reform in America: A Question of Parity With Our International Rivals, 13 U. PA. J. INT'L BUS. L. 1 (1992) was published with an error. The word “not” was inadvertently omitted between the words “would” and “fully” in the second sentence of the first full paragraph on page 54.

The corrected sentence should read as follows:

Specifically, the proposal to adopt a disclosure requirement would alter our civil justice system significantly, but it would not fully resolve the problem it is meant to address—abusive discovery.

The University of Pennsylvania Journal of International Business Law apologizes for the error.
