

Office of Inclusion and Engagement Alumni Advisory Board Member

Adam Heft L'97

Adam is Vice President, Associate General Counsel in the Employment Law Group in the Legal Department at Goldman Sachs & Co., where he provides legal advice and counsel to a number of divisions of the firm. Adam also works closely with the firm's Diversity and Inclusion and Recruiting teams and provides immigration law advice to the firm.

Adam is the co-COO of Goldman's Disability Interest Forum, one of the firm's employee affinity networks. He is also a member of the Legal Department's Diversity Working Group. Since 2006, Adam has been a member of the Board of Directors of Urban Pathways, a New York City based not-for-profit social service and supportive housing organization dedicated to serving homeless adults in the New York metropolitan area. He currently serves as co-chair of the Development Committee and is a member of the Human Resources Committee.

Adam earned a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1997 and a Bachelor of Arts degree, cum laude, in American Diplomatic History from the University of Pennsylvania in 1993, where he wrote his honors thesis on the development of modern legal education at the Law School.