Comment responses

9. Is there any special preparation or background necessary to take this course?

Comments
More on the theory of law and econ
No.
No.

10. Comment on the instructor's (Jonathan Klick) stimulation of interest in the subject matter and independent thought.

Comments
Lively class, creates good learning atmosphere
Professor Klick is a very funny and engaging lecturer and periodically asks if any students have comments on or ideas to explain statistical results.
I really loved how Professor Klick taught each class.

11. Comment on the instructor (Jonathan Klick) with respect to attitude toward students and accessibility outside of class.

Comments
Very accessible
Professor Klick very approachable and responds to emails.
Professor Klick was very easy to reach and he gave very helpful advice.

12. Comment on the strengths and weaknesses of the course. How could it be improved?

Comments
More on theory
A strength is teaching students how to evaluate the strength of both statistics and analysis of those statistics. I think it would be helpful to spend more time early on discussing how regressions work because they are so integral to the remainder of the course.
I think it will be more helpful if the class on study methods, regressions, is placed more early in the semester.
