

Master in Law

ENTREPRENEURSHIP & THE LAW

LAWM 525 • Spring 2021

Wednesdays 5:30 – 8:15 pm

Rebecca Clayton

*Adjunct Professor of Law,
University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School
& Associate General Counsel, Nexxt, Inc.*

This course offers an intensive and practical survey of the critical legal and transactional matters facing start-ups and emerging businesses. In an interactive environment using a combination of case analysis, class discussions, group presentations, and real-world insights, students will learn about the foundational legal considerations involved in starting a business and establishing a sustainable organization. Topics include choice of business form; corporate governance; labor and employment law; intellectual property; privacy, data protection, and cybersecurity; capital raising; and common deal structures. By the end of the course, students will be equipped with an understanding of the legal fundamentals of creating, operating, and growing an enterprise.
