

Office of Inclusion and Engagement Student Advisory Board Member

Andrea Leelike, L'21

Andrea Leelike is a 3L who grew up sailing in the small Long Island town of Bellport, NY. She graduated from Boston University in 2016 with a B.S.B.A., concentrating in Business Law and minoring in Deaf Studies. She sits on the boards of Penn Law's Public Speaking Society, F.E.A.S.T., and Federalist Society. Andrea is also a member of the Student Orientation Committee, Penn Law's Women's Association, Environmental Law Project, Christian Legal Society, and First Generation Professionals. She spent her 1L summer in-house at West Pharmaceuticals and split her 2L summer between Milbank's NY and London offices.