Margo Hu L'23

Margo Hu grew up in Bowling Green, Pittsburgh, Tianjin, and the suburbs of Chicago. They attended Brown University for their undergraduate studies, where they majored in Cognitive Neuroscience and Visual Arts. Before coming to Penn Law, Margo worked as a client advocate at the New Castle County public defender's office for two years. They are looking forward to continuing their work in criminal justice, civil rights, and immigration issues impacting the larger Philadelphia community. Margo is a Toll Public Interest Scholar, and is additionally involved with Lambda, APALSA, and PLIRP.
