

Office of Inclusion and Engagement Student Advisory Board Member

Maya Reddy L'22

Maya Reddy grew up in Northern California and attended Claremont McKenna College where she was a dual major in Government and Film Studies. Maya is a former professional golfer, LGBTQ+ athlete activist, founder of the Queer Asian Social Club, and a Toll Public Interest Scholar in the University of Pennsylvania Class of 2022. Maya is dedicated to fighting for LGBTQ+ inclusive policies in sports and intends to use her J.D. to strengthen that work in inclusive policy formation, advocacy, and litigation defending trans and queer athletes. In addition to the Inclusion and Engagement Student Advisory Board, Maya is Co-President of Penn Law Lambda, Speakers and Conference Co-Chair of SALSA, and an Associate Editor for the Journal of Constitutional Law.