

Xun Zeng is a fund formation partner of Cooley LLP in Beijing. Xun's practice is focused on the formation, structuring and operation of a wide variety of investment funds, including venture capital funds, growth capital funds, private equity funds, and co-investment funds. She advises fund sponsors on the marketing, formation and operation of their funds, as well as upper-tier arrangements, carried interest plans, strategic joint venture arrangements and various governance matters.

Xun also has extensive experience in representing institutional investors (including sovereign wealth funds, insurance companies and funds of funds) in connection with investments in private funds, including buyout funds, venture capital funds, credit funds, hedge funds and separately managed accounts.

Xun regularly attends and speaks at industry conferences and panels, including those hosted by AVCJ Private Equity & Venture Forum.

Xun started her legal career as a fund formation lawyer in the New York office of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton and Garrison LLP in 2007, and prior to joining Cooley, she was a counsel in the private funds group of the Hong Kong office of Ropes & Gray LLP.

Xun is admitted to practice in New York and Hong Kong.

Education

- University of Pennsylvania Law School
JD
- University of Pennsylvania Law School
LLM
- Sun Yat-sen University School of Law
LLB with honors

Bar Admissions

- New York
- Hong Kong