Penn Carey Law's campus is state-of-the-art, with four fully interconnected buildings surrounding a green courtyard. Law students are steps away from the amenities of the larger University of Pennsylvania campus, with its activities for graduate and professional students, its state-of-the-art gym and health club, and its many libraries, museums, theaters, lectures, and events.

ABOUT PHILADELPHIA

“Philly” is the fifth-largest city in the United States. Philadelphia features wonderful residential neighborhoods, a booming restaurant scene, robust art and theater life, excellent shopping, and great sports teams – all centrally located and served by public transport.

The historic city of Philadelphia is the birthplace of the U.S. Constitution. Millions around the globe were inspired by the decisions made here, which laid the bedrock foundation for the American legal system, making it an ideal place for a visiting student to study law.

Philadelphia offers professional students an affordable, accessible, and exciting lifestyle with easy access to both New York City (1.5 hours by train) and Washington DC (2 hours by train).

HELPFUL TIP

In the United States, law school is a graduate level program, and you will be considered graduate exchange students. Exchange students are classified as '2Ls' (i.e., second year students) for course registration purposes, and enroll in four courses at Penn Carey Law to maintain fulltime status. Please note that exchange students may not enroll in non-law courses.

Logistics

HEALTHCARE INFORMATION

The University requires all full-time exchange students to have medical insurance. You may satisfy the insurance requirement through enrollment in the Penn Student Insurance Plan (PSIP) or through any private plan (including a plan from your own country) that meets University criteria for coverage.

Please note that all exchange students will also be required pay a one-time, non-waivable clinical fee (this fee is $332 in 2022-2023).

TRANSPORTATION

The University of Pennsylvania is approximately 20 minutes by car from Philadelphia International Airport. Philadelphia is well connected by a public transit system (SEPTA) within the city and the Greater Philadelphia region. You can purchase a monthly pass or pay per trip on SEPTA's system of buses, commuter trains, and trolleys.

<http://www.septa.org/>

VISA INFORMATION

Penn Carey Law will sponsor either an F-1 or J-1 student visa for the duration of your semester in the United States. Admitted students will receive further detail on the visa application instructions and links to the relevant forms. For visa approval, be aware that you will be required to prove sufficient funding (approximately $12,000) for one semester in Philadelphia.

MONTHLY BUDGETING

An individual's expenses will depend on their personal habits and preferences. Below for planning purposes is an estimated monthly budget:

Housing	$1,117-$1,988/month (on-campus) or $895-$2,500/month (off-campus)
Renter's Insurance	$20/month
Utilities	$50-$100/month (off-campus)
Books and Supplies	$1,100
Public Transportation Pass	$96/month (optional)
Personal Expenses	$500-$800/month (travel, meals, entertainment)

HELPFUL TIP

Graduate students are not housed in the undergraduate dormitories. Most law students live off campus in shared apartments, mostly in University City (the area around campus) or Center City (within walking distance or accessible by public transportation).
