PERSONAL STATEMENT

The Admissions Committee requires that every applicant submit an original sample of written expression. The purpose of this personal statement is to provide you with as flexible an opportunity as possible to submit information that you deem important to your candidacy. You may wish to describe aspects of your background and interests - intellectual, personal or professional - and how you will uniquely contribute to the Penn Carey Law community and/or the legal profession. Your statement should also include the reason you are seeking visiting status at Penn Carey Law. Please limit your statement to two pages, double spaced.

CHARACTER AND FITNESS

You are required to answer the following questions. If you answer "yes" to any of the following questions, you must attach an explanatory statement. If you do not, the processing and review of your application will be delayed.

- Yes  No Has your academic experience ever been interrupted, after the start of a degree program, for one or more terms for any reason? (This does not include the time period between high school and college or between college and law school, etc.)
- Yes  No Have you ever been issued academic or disciplinary warnings, placed on academic or disciplinary probation, suspended, dropped, expelled, or been required to withdraw from any post-secondary education you have attended, or are any such proceedings now pending against you? (This should include matters that have been expunged.)
- Yes  No Have you ever, either as an adult or a juvenile, been arrested, charged, cited, or convicted of a crime (including misdemeanors), or cited for an infraction (including moving violations), or is any charge now pending against you? (This should include matters that have been expunged or subject to a diversionary program.)

VOLUNTARY PERSONAL DATA

Answering the following questions is optional. This information is confidential and answering the questions or the omission of an answer will not influence the Law School's decision on admission.

The Penn Carey Law Admissions Office partners with our students and alumni to communicate with admitted applicants about various Law School events, including conferences and symposia, and to welcome admitted applicants to the community. Does the Admissions Office have your permission to provide your information, such as name, mailing address, email address, and/or phone number, to select members of the Penn Carey Law community for such purposes? CERTIFICATION STATEMENT

By signing this application, I certify that all information I have submitted in this application and in any supporting documents of my candidacy for admission to the University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School is complete and true. I agree to promptly notify the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid of any changes in the information I have provided in this application. I understand that providing false or misleading information or failing to provide updated information can result in a withdrawal of an offer of admission, dismissal, or other disciplinary sanctions. The Law School reserves the right to withdraw an offer of admission if the candidate fails to maintain satisfactory scholastic standing for work in progress, if final records fail to show completion of courses and/or degrees required for admission, or if the admission decision was based on incomplete or inaccurate information furnished by the applicant. Materials submitted in support of this application will be retained by the Law School and may be made available to the State Board of Bar Examiners.

University of Pennsylvania Non-Discrimination Policy and Safety Statement

The University of Pennsylvania values diversity and seeks talented students, faculty and staff from diverse backgrounds. The University of Pennsylvania does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, creed, national or ethnic origin, citizenship status, age, disability, veteran status or any other legally protected class status in the administration of its admissions, financial aid, educational or athletic programs, or other University-administered programs or in its employment practices. Questions or complaints regarding this policy should be directed to: Executive Director of the Office of Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity Programs, Sansom Place East, 3600 Chestnut Street, Suite 228, Philadelphia, PA 19104-6106; or 215.898.6993 (voice) or 215.898.7803 (TDD). Specific questions concerning the accommodation of students with disabilities should be directed to the Office of Student Disabilities Services located at Stouffer Commons, Ste 300 3702 Spruce Street, Philadelphia PA 19104-6027; or 215.573.9235 (voice) or 215.746.6320 (TDD).

Federal law, the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, requires all institutions of higher education to provide information on their security policies and procedures and specific statistics for criminal incidents and arrests on campus to students and employees, and to make the information and statistics available to prospective students and employees upon request. The Pennsylvania Uniform Crime Reporting Act requires Penn to provide information about its security policies and procedures to students, employees and applicants; to provide crime statistics to students and employees; and to make those statistics available to applicants and prospective employees upon request.

The information about Penn is available at <https://www.publicsafety.upenn.edu/clery/annual-security-fire-safety-report/> or by calling the Division of Public Safety at 215.898.4481.
