NATIONAL BANKRUPTCY ARCHIVES
ORAL HISTORY PROGRAM
RELEASE FORM

Thank you for agreeing to participate in the Oral History Program of the National Bankruptcy Archives. The interviewer will conduct an audio- or video-recorded oral history interview concerning your career, your life history, and your reflections. You may withdraw at any time from participation in this project.

You will be asked to sign this release at the end of the interview so that you will be fully aware of the content of the interview before agreeing to its use and preservation. A copy of the recording and any transcript subsequently created will be made available to researchers through the National Bankruptcy Archives at the Biddle Law Library at the University of Pennsylvania Law School. It may be used for research, publications, exhibits, course materials, multi-media productions. Some or allof the interview may also be included on the National Bankruptcy Archives' website (the National Bankruptcy Archives' URL is https://www.law.upenn.edu/library/archives/bankruptcy).

You will receive a copy of this form for your records. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Leslie O'Neill, Archivist, Biddle Law Library, University of Pennsylvania Law School, 3400 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 19104. You may reach Ms. O'Neill at (215) 898-5011 or via e-mail at loneil@law.upenn.edu. You may also have access to the recording at any time by contacting the Biddle Law Library Archives.

I hereby release to the Biddle Law Library at the University of Pennsylvania Law School the use of the audio recording(s) or video recordings(s) and transcript(s) of the interview conducted this day. A copy of the audio or video recording and any transcript subsequently created will be deposited in the National Bankruptcy Archives.

I understand that a copy of the audio recording or video recording and any transcript subsequently created will be made available in Biddle Law Library, and that it may be used for research, publications, exhibits, course materials, or multi-media productions. I also understand that a some or all of the interview may be included on the National Bankruptcy Archives website.

I hereby give permission for use of this material without restrictions.

Signature of Narrator:_____
Name: _____ Date:_____
Address and Phone Number:
_____
_____

Signature of Interviewer:_____
Name:_____Date:_____
Address and Phone Number:
_____
_____