

Jonathan Todd

University of Pennsylvania Law School

Jonathan Todd is a second-year law student at the University of Pennsylvania. During the course of his second year at the law school he has worked closely with Professor Claire Finkelstein and Ilya Rudyak at CERL in helping to research and develop the Center's positions on unlawful combatancy and on issues associated with domestic surveillance by the NSA. In addition to his work with CERL, Jon has served as the volunteer coordinator with the Service Members and Veterans Legal Assistance Project at Penn and will continue to serve as the organization's Co-Director for the 2014-15 academic year. In the summer of 2014 Jon will work as a legal intern with Navy-Marine Corps Court of Criminal Appeals in Washington D.C. Prior to entering law school Jonathan graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts in history and political science from Indiana University and was accepted to the Indiana chapter of Phi Beta Kappa in 2012.
