LLM Career Programming
Fall Semester 2015

LLM — The Art of Networking
Tuesday, September 8 | Noon to 1:00 | Tanenbaum 145
Network tips in a U.S. market. The program will provide insight on how to network and conduct informational interviews. The program will also be taped if you have a class conflict.

LLM — Social Media Presentation & Professional Photos
Friday, September 18

Social Media Presentation
Noon – 1:00 | Silverman 240A
Penn Law’s Office of Communication Senior Specialist Emily Brennan will discuss potential payoffs and pitfalls of lawyer social media usage. Ms. Brennan will discuss ways to harness the power of social media to build professional profiles. Following the presentation, students will have the opportunity to pose for a professional photo, which they can use to enhance their own professional portfolios online. The program will also be taped if you have a class conflict.

Professional Pictures
1:15 – 3:30 | Great Hall Staircase – Sign in outside S147

Penn Law Public Speaking Society — Center on Professionalism (COP)
Mondays – 3:15 | Room TBA
The Society is a student-led group that provides a fun and comfortable environment in which people of all ability levels can build confidence and hone their public speaking skills. PLPSS meets weekly.

International Career Presentation — United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR)
Tuesday, September 29 | Noon – 1:15 | Tanenbaum 145
Fernando Flores will discuss working at the UNHCR and provide insight on internships and career options with the U.N. Fernando Flores began working in the area of U.N. affairs in 1992. Since May 2014, Mr. Flores has served as a Programme Associate with the Regional Representation in Washington for the UNHCR.

LLM — Careers in Finance, Regulation, and Banking
Friday, October 2 | Noon – 1:00 | Silverman 145
LLM alumni will discuss their career paths and provide advice on how to break into careers in finance, regulation, and banking.

Speakers:
Thomas Dineen, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority
Ksenia Portnoy, Guggenheim Partners, LLC, NYC
Francois-Xavier Rouffiac, BNP Paribas, NYC

Microsoft Excel for the Legal Professional: Level 1 — Center on Professionalism (COP)
(Limited Enrollment)
Friday, October 2 | 12:30 – 5:00
In this interactive workshop, Microsoft Expert Craig Brody will teach students the fundamental Excel skills every lawyer needs to know.

Leading Effectively in Law School and Beyond — Center on Professionalism (COP)
October 5 | Noon
Conveying self-confidence is critical for lawyers as they partner with their clients to navigate complex legal landscapes. Lawyer and psychotherapist Gail Cummings works with students to understand the roots of insecurity and how to reframe negative feelings and self-doubt to feel more confident and inspire others.
LLM International Student Interview Program (ISIP) Orientation Presentation
Wednesday, October 7 | Noon – 1:00 | Gittis 214
A nitty-gritty overview of the ISIP job fair and how to register to participate. Please attend the presentation if you plan on participating in the fair. The program will also be taped if you have a class conflict.

BakerHostetler Firm Visit
Friday, October 9 | 2:00 – 4:00
BakerHostetler attorneys will share their career paths, discuss the practice of International Intellectual Property law at their firm and provide general career advice on how to be a successful IP attorney.

New York City Bar Association Reception, NYC
Tuesday, October 15
New York City Bar Association panel program and reception for International LLM degree candidates. The program is designed to introduce LLM candidates to the New York legal community and the New York City Bar, providing guidance in making their way in the legal community. The program will be held at the Association, located at 42 West 44th Street, between Fifth and Sixth Avenues, and is scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m., followed by a reception.

Equal Justice Works Conference and Career Fair
Friday, October 23 & Saturday, October 24
Crystal Gateway Marriott
1700 Jefferson Davis Highway, Arlington, VA 22202
To be clear this fair is for public interest positions only (mainly summer internships for students) and not with Law Firms or other private employers.

Registration deadline September 14: Student and recent graduate registration and application period. Please note that your registration fee is reimbursable AFTER the EJW Fair; Please contact Neta Borshansky with any questions about EJW funding.

Career Satisfaction with Shanin Specter L’84
Monday, October 26 | Noon
Successful trial attorney and esteemed alumnus Shanin Specter will discuss his own career path and how students can set themselves on a path toward career satisfaction.

LinkedIn Drop-Ins - Center on Professionalism (COP)
October 26 and November 2, 16, 23 | Noon
Stop by the Center on Professionalism (COP) to receive feedback from COP and the Office of Communications on ways to improve your LinkedIn profile. Students will learn valuable social media tips for lawyers!

Microsoft Excel for the Legal Professional: Level 2 – Center on Professionalism (COP) (Limited Enrollment)
November 6 | 12:30 – 5:00
Building on the Excel skills taught in Level 1, this workshop will further advance your Excel competencies.

International Law Weekend
American Branch of the International Law Association, NYC
Global Problems, Legal Solutions: Challenges For Contemporary International Lawyers
Thursday – Saturday, November 5 – 7
Lincoln Center campus of Fordham, NYC
Penn Law is one of the sponsors for this 3-day series of panels at the Lincoln Center campus of Fordham. Student attendance is free. International Law Weekend 2015 will be held in New York City. The theme of ILW 2015 is GLOBAL PROBLEMS, LEGAL SOLUTIONS: CHALLENGES FOR CONTEMPORARY INTERNATIONAL LAWYERS. This annual conference attracts an audience of more than one thousand practitioners, academics, diplomats, members of the governmental and nongovernmental sectors as well foreign policy and law students who are learning about the range of practice and career opportunities.