The Fulbright Belgium - Luxembourg
Penn Law LLM Award

The Award: The University of Pennsylvania Law’s LLM (General Master of Laws) Program has partnered with the Commission for Educational Exchange between the U.S., Belgium and Luxembourg to offer a $25,000 grant for eligible students to pursue the LLM degree at the Penn Law. Eligible students must be a citizen of Belgium or Luxembourg, and must hold a first degree in law from a foreign (non-U.S.) jurisdiction. Fulbright will also offer the successful candidate a travel stipend, sickness and accident insurance, J-visa sponsorship, and access to global Fulbright programming in Belgium and the United States.

The Program: Penn Law’s generalized LLM allows students to design an individualized curriculum. In addition, award recipients can participate in a wide range of programs, including:

- Wharton Business and Law Certificate: This is a custom designed program for Penn Law LLM students taught by Wharton faculty and industry experts selected for their teaching skills, subject expertise and ability to offer applied concepts and examples to participants.

- LLM Public Service Program: Penn Law provides LLM students with important opportunities to develop their professional skills while learning more about the communities that exist beyond the walls of Penn Law.

- Clinical Programs: Award recipients will be eligible to participate in four clinical programs focusing on Entrepreneurship, Intellectual Property and Technology, International Human Rights and Immigration, and Mediation.

The Campus: The Law School’s campus is state-of-the-art and students are steps away from the amenities of the University of Pennsylvania. Philadelphia is one of the most historic cities in the United States and offers professional students an affordable, accessible, and exciting lifestyle with easy access to New York City and Washington DC.

Applying: Deadline is December 1. To apply, submit a preliminary application form at: www.fulbright.be/awards/application-form/ and indicate your intention to apply to Penn Law.
