

MICHAEL W. MEIER
Special Assistant to the Army Judge Advocate General for Law of War Matters
International and Operational Law Division
Office of the Judge Advocate General
U.S. Department of Army

Michael W. Meier returned to the Department of the Army in June 2016 and serves as the senior law of war subject matter expert for Judge Advocate General's Corps. His portfolio includes providing advice to The Judge Advocate General on policy issues involving the law of war, review of all proposed new weapons and weapons systems, serves as a member of the DoD Law of War Working Group, and provides assistance on detainee and Enemy Prisoner of War affairs.

Mr. Meier previously served as an Attorney-Adviser with the Office of the Legal Adviser, Political-Military Affairs, U.S. Department of State from June 2009 until June 2016. His portfolio included International Humanitarian Law issues associated with the interpretation and application of the law of war to U.S. military operations; U.S. diplomatic initiatives, including ongoing dialogue with the ICRC, the United Nations and other intergovernmental organizations, international agreements; and arms control agreements, such as the Ottawa Convention, Convention on Cluster Munitions, the Convention on Certain Conventional Weapons, and the Arms Trade Treaty.

Mr. Meier also served 23 years as an Army Judge Advocate until his retirement in August 2009. He served in a variety of assignments including the Staff Judge Advocate, Fort Carson, Colorado; Principal Deputy Legal Counsel to the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; Staff Judge Advocate, U.S. Army South; Deputy Staff Judge Advocate, 25th Infantry Division (Light), Hawaii; Deputy Staff Judge Advocate, Multi-National Division (N), Tuzla, Bosnia.

Mr. Meier earned a B.B.A. degree from Midwestern State University, a J.D. degree from the St. Mary's University, a LL.M. in Taxation from Georgetown University, a LL.M. in Military Law from The Judge Advocate General's School, and a M.S. in Strategic Studies from the United States Army War College. He is also a graduate of the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College and the Judge Advocate Basic and Graduate courses.

His awards include the Department of State's Superior Honor Award and Meritorious Honor Award, and the Department of Defense's Defense Superior Service Award, Legion of Merit, Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal, and the Army Achievement Medal.