

Center for Technology, Innovation and Competition

Now Hiring Fall Research Assistants

The Center for Technology, Innovation and Competition is seeking to hire rising 2Ls, 3Ls, and LLMS to work as research assistants during the fall term. Research assistants will have the opportunity to work with CTIC faculty on cutting edge projects in the area of law and technology.

To apply, please submit the following to cmolson@law.upenn.edu by Friday, September 14, 2018:

1. Resume
2. Transcript (unofficial is fine)
3. Cover letter articulating why you are interested in the opportunity and listing classes you have taken in technology and/or intellectual property. Also, please note any professors with whom you would like to work, and why, and whether you have worked for any CTIC professors in the past.
