

Office of Inclusion and Engagement
Student Advisory Board Member

Jonathan Hoffman L'20

Jonathan is a 3L born and raised in Houston, Texas. He started at Penn Law following his graduation from Yeshiva University in 2017 with a B.S in Finance and A.A. in Jewish Studies, where he was sabre weapons leader on the NCAA Fencing team and very involved on campus. At Penn Law, Jonathan serves on the Council of Student Representatives as a 3L Representative and on the Admissions and Faculty Committees. He is also Production Editor on the University of Pennsylvania Law Review, Morris Fellow, former Vice President of the Jewish Law Students Association, member of the Penn Law Federalist Society and Penn Law Bowling League, and spends much of his time on pro-bono and clinic matters. Jonathan spent his 1L summer at the Office of the Solicitor General of Texas and will be traveling to Simpson, Thacher & Bartlett in NYC following graduation.