Julie Cardinale ML'23

Julie is the Director of Skating for Rothman Rink at Dilworth Park and Wissahickon Skating Club in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and is an associate member of the Professional Skaters Association and United States Figure Skating Association. After completing her BFA from Moore College of Art and Design, Julie toured as a professional figure skater with Disney on Ice and the Ice Capades and other skating companies before returning to Philadelphia to teach recreational and competitive figure skating. Julie recently completed her M.S.Ed. from University of Pennsylvania's Education Entrepreneurship program and is a Penn Law Master in Law candidate for 2021. She is a member of Wharton's VIP-C Entrepreneurship Community with Philadelphia Ice Skaters & Artists Collaborative (PhilalICE). PhilalICE provides a platform for collaboration, education, and opportunities in the performance arts and figure skating in urban Philadelphia.
