

Global Legal Practice Fellowship (GLPF) - Summer 2020

1L or 2L students currently enrolled at Penn Law are eligible to apply for GLPF. Funding up to $5,000 is available for unpaid (or minimally paid) placements. Students must work 8 weeks to receive full funding. To be eligible for funding, students must contact Caroline Ruhle immediately after accepting a GLPF placement and submit a GLPF Funding Application. Students must also complete the Summer Funding Application.

Aluko & Oyebode (Lagos, Nigeria)

AnJie Law Firm (Beijing, China)

Atsumi & Sakai (Tokyo, Japan)

Barun Law (Seoul, South Korea)

Bermeo and Bermeo Law Firm (Quito, Ecuador)

Bofill Mir & Alvarez Jana (Santiago, Chile)

Brigard & Urrutia/Briggard and Castro (Bogotá, Colombia)

Cobden House Chambers (Manchester, United Kingdom)

Cocuzza & Associati (Milan, Italy)

International Law Committee (ILC) of the Philadelphia Bar Association and Bar of Lyon (Lyon, France)

Kim & Chang (Seoul, South Korea)

Quest (Mumbai, India)

Llinks Law Offices (Beijing, China)

Luthra and Luthra (New Delhi, Mumbai, Bangalore, India)

P.R.I.M.E. (The Hague, The Netherlands)

PwC | Melli Darsa & Co.(Jakarta, Indonesia)

Nishimura & Asahi (Tokyo, Japan)

SyCip Salazar Hernandez & Gatmaitan (Makati City, Manila, Philippines)

Wiener.Soto.Caparrós (Buenos Aires, Argentina)

XXIV Old Buildings (London, England)

Yulchon LLC (Seoul, Korea)

Firm name: Aluko & Oyebode (<http://www.aluko-oyebode.com>)
Location: Lagos, Nigeria
Symlicity Job # 14730

Description of Firm: Aluko & Oyebode (www.aluko-oyebode.com) is Nigeria's foremost commercial law firm. The firm provides a comprehensive range of specialist legal services to a highly diversified clientele, including top-tier international and multinational clients. Our practice areas include energy and natural resources, corporate and commercial, banking and finance, capital markets/mergers and acquisitions, dispute resolution (litigation and arbitration), telecommunications, intellectual property, real estate, maritime, privatization and advisory services.

Description of Internship: Aluko & Oyebode's aim is to provide interns with the opportunity to gain knowledge of substantive legal and business issues and understand practical issues of the legal profession. Interns will have the opportunity to be involved in all the practice areas of the firm. An intern's practical experience will include research, drafting and analyzing legal documents and preparing legal opinions. Interns will have an opportunity of working with both partners and senior associates.

Internship Location: Lagos, Nigeria (Other Offices – Abuja & Port Harcourt)

Length of Internship: 1 - 2 months beginning in June

Allowances: The firm will provide airport transfer on arrival and departure, a monthly stipend of US$500 (Five Hundred Dollars) inclusive of cell phone allowance. The firm will also provide and guarantee accommodation with a Nigerian staff member's family to non-Nigerian interns. Aluko & Oyebode will not pay for the cost of flights. Aluko & Oyebode will, however, provide the required/relevant documentation (Letter of Invitation / Introduction etc.) to enable the processing of a Nigerian Visa.

Qualifications: A 1L or 2L Law student who is interested in gaining overseas legal experience

Primary Contact: Damilola Bamigbola, Assistant Practice Manager (Human Resources)

Previous Penn Law Interns: Angela Briggs (2010), David Udekwu (2011), Daniel Wilson (2012), Folasade Famakinwa (2019)

Firm Name: Atsumi & Sakai
Location: Tokyo, Japan
Symlicity Job # 27525

Description of Firm: Atsumi & Sakai has developed a depth of expertise that extends across all of fields of business and finance law. The firm has recognized excellence for its innovative capabilities in finance, particularly for our work in project finance, PFI, M&A finance, syndicated loans, securitization, covered bonds and similar structured finance transactions, as well as the creation and management of investment funds, both inbound and outbound. In April 2005, Atsumi & Sakai became the first Japanese law firm to create a foreign law joint venture, which permits us to admit as partners attorneys admitted in jurisdictions other than Japan, bringing real international expertise and capabilities to the firm. In addition to giving us the ability to advise on the laws of the US states of New York and California, the Federal laws of the United States, the laws of Germany, the People's Republic of China, England and Wales, India, the States of Queensland and Victoria, Australia and Australian Federal laws, this enables us to provide comprehensive, highly sophisticated drafting, research and other legal services seamlessly across multiple jurisdictions.

Description of Internship: Participants in the Summer Program will be supporting both senior and junior attorneys at the firm in international and foreign matters. They can look forward to, among other things, assisting attorneys with drafting work, coordination with co-counsel and clients in international cases, and legal research. Participants have worked in fields such as project finance, PFI, M&A finance, syndicated loans, securitization, covered bonds and similar structured finance transactions. The firm also offers several social and recreational events to give foreign summer associates a chance to meet : Atsumi & Sakai attorneys from other departments and to expose them to both Tokyo and the legal culture of Japan. We are looking forward to receiving applications from those aspiring law students with a keen interest in specializing in cross-border practice of law with a focus in Asia.

Length of Internship: Summer associates will spend a minimum of four (4) weeks and a maximum of eight (8) weeks between late May and August. The length of summer program for each summer associate will be determined on an individual basis at the time of hiring, considering the firm's summer hiring needs and the summer associate's scheduling needs.

Compensation: Intern will be compensated. Also, see below for possible adjustments. The firm may assist you with lodging accommodations upon request, and the compensation above may be adjusted factoring in the housing assistance provided by the firm.

Qualifications: 1L & 2L Students at University of Pennsylvania Law School. Conversational Japanese language skills desirable, business level proficiency highly desirable but not necessary. Strong analytical and legal writing skills in the English language required. Knowledge and command of other Asian languages a plus but not at all required. Strong interests in Japan for its business, culture, and language highly welcome.

Application Details: Applicants should consider the cover letter as their "personal statement" for application, clearly laying out the reasons for his/her application to the Summer Program and the required abilities that the applicant possesses. Once an application is submitted, Atsumi & Sakai Summer Hiring Committee will contact the applicant to set up an interview(s) through a proper venue such as by telephone or Skype.

Primary Contact: Go Hashimoto, Partner, Summer Hiring Committee

Firm Name: AnJie Law Firm (www.anjielaw.com)

Location: Beijing, China

Symplicity Job # 14733

Description of Firm: AnJie Law Firm was created as a result of the demand for prompt, insightful legal solutions from clients doing business in both domestic and global environment. As a full-service firm, our experienced attorneys serve a broad base of practice areas including antitrust & competition law, banking & finance, capital markets, dispute resolution, employment, energy & natural resources, infrastructure, insurance, intellectual property, mergers & acquisitions, private equity, real estate. Many of our attorneys have overseas education and working experience. AnJie is committed to offer clients the highest quality service with practical and strategic solutions.

Description of Internship: Internship involves legal research and writing, drafting corporate documents, conducting due diligence, client intake and/or counseling, preparation of advocacy materials, document translation/language assistance, accompanying attorneys to court, client meetings, conferences and other assignments that relate to the legal profession.

Length of Internship: Normally 1-3 months beginning in June

Stipends and Benefits: Salary is RMB 2,000 per month. Airfare will not be provided. Housing may be provided if needed.

Qualifications: Excellent writing and research skills required. Chinese language skills are preferred but not essential.

Primary Contact: Bing Cheng, Partner

Firm Name: Barun Law (www.barunlaw.com)

Location: Seoul, Korea

Symlicity Job # 14734

Description of Firm: Barun Law has emerged as Korea's fastest growing and most dynamic full service law firm. The firm's partners include many of the most prominent members of the Korean Bar as well as a sophisticated and experienced team of foreign attorneys. The firm boasts an advocacy practice that is second to none in Korea. Barun Law's international corporate attorneys have substantial expertise in mergers & acquisitions, private equity/venture capital transactions, real estate and development projects, general corporate matters, infrastructure investment and project finance, commercial banking, securities and finance, employment and labor relations, insurance industry issues, fair trade/antitrust, intellectual property, franchising and strategic issues management. Our international client base includes many of the world's largest companies, major financial institutions and funds, growing companies, entrepreneurs and a number of foreign governments.

Description of Internship: Responsibilities include assisting Korean and foreign lawyers with various matters depending on intern's capability.

Length of Internship: One month preferred.

Stipends and Benefits: Net salary to be determined. Please note that housing and airfare will not be provided.

Qualifications: Looking for an outstanding student attending law school who is interested in gaining overseas legal experience. Fluent Korean language skills are preferred but not essential.

Primary Contact: Thomas Pinansky

Previous Penn Law Interns: Abraham Kwon (2010), Sofia Papakostas (2011), Alicia Zhang (2014), Ren-Ann Wang (2016)

Firm name: Bermeo and Bermeo Law Firm (<http://www.bermeolaw.com>)

Location: Quito, Ecuador

Symplicity Job # 14735

Description of Firm: We are a full service IP & Corporate Law Firm. Bermeo is oriented to assist international businesses in every phase of their entrance into the Ecuadorian and South American markets. For more information about us, please visit our website.

Description of Internship(s): Responsibilities include assisting attorneys in various IP and/or corporate matters depending on the intern's capabilities.

Length of Internship: Minimum of one month is preferred.

Stipends and Benefit: Unpaid internship, however a discretionary bonus may be considered at the end. Please note that housing and airfare will not be provided, but we are happy to assist you in the process.

Qualifications: Looking for one or two outstanding students attending Penn Law who are interested in gaining overseas legal experience. Spanish speaking skills are preferred but not required.

Primary Contact: Ab. Pablo Bermeo-Andrade, (GL'11)

Previous Penn Law Interns: Timothy Fisher (2011), Jessica Moscoso (2013), Laura Kravitz (2013), Karlen Parsamian (2016), Margaret Ledak (2017), Jason Sloan (2017), Andrew Jeon (2018), Germaine Grant (2019)

Firm name: Brigard & Urrutia / Brigard and Castro (<http://www.bu.com.co/ingles/index.htm>)

Location: Bogotá, Colombia

Symplicity Job # 14737

Description of Firm: Both firms are placed at the very forefront of the legal services market in Colombia. Brigard & Urrutia is one of the most prominent full-service law firms in Latin America. Brigard & Urrutia provides integral legal advice to a clientele composed of national and foreign companies, banks and other financial institutions, private equity funds, insurance companies, governmental agencies and corporations. Meanwhile, Brigard & Castro focuses on matters related to industrial property and copyright law. Brigard & Castro has more than fifty years' experience in the intellectual property field.

Description of Internship: Interns may have the opportunity to work in different high performance teams, to attend training and professional development activities, and also have the chance to work with attorneys on real cases. This experience allows interns comprehensive engagement with law in practice and the life of a law firm.

Length of Internship: Seven Weeks

Stipends and Benefits: Interns receive $1100 USD on completion of the internship. Qualifications: The cover letter for this program should be written partially in English and partially in Spanish. Students demonstrating outstanding academic performance, excellent personal qualifications.

Qualifications: Priority Deadline candidates should forward their curriculum vitae to pasantiasdeverano@bu.com.co no later than January 25th with a personal statement expressing their interest in participating in the Program (half of it written in English and the other half in spanish).

Primary Contacts: Mr. Ricardo Vivas Bernal, Learning Chief, Pasantias de Verano

Previous Penn Law Intern: Gustavo Andres Silva-Cano (2011)

Firm name: Cobden House Chambers (<http://www.cobden.co/uk/>)
Location: Manchester, United Kingdom
Symplicity Job # 14739

Description of the Firm: Cobden House Chambers is a barristers' Chambers in Manchester, which is the largest legal center in England outside London. (Note that in England and Wales the legal profession is divided into barristers and solicitors.) The Chambers has over 60 members, practicing in four main areas, Crime, Personal Injury, Chancery and Family. The work of Chambers is heavily litigious. The Chambers is noted for a willingness to act on both sides of disputes; we prosecute and defend crime, act for both plaintiffs and insurers in personal injury claims, act for both creditors and debtors, and so forth. At least 3 members of Chambers sit as part-time Judges in various capacities.

Description of Internship: Barristers Chambers typically offer British Law students short placements in Chambers called "mini-pupillages" to assist in career choices and to identify suitable recruits. This is what is being offered to Penn Law Students. It is mainly observation, with only limited research being required. It will introduce students to another common law system. The candidate may be able to spend some time sitting with a Judge, but this is not guaranteed.

Length of Internship: 3-4 week internship

Stipends and Benefit: Entirely unpaid.

Qualifications: An open mind and a willingness to experience law at the sharp end. Some pre- reading on aspects of modern English law is desirable.

Primary Contact: Richard Oughton, Head of Chancery Department (GL'77)

Previous Penn Law Interns: David Udekwu (2010), Jordan Yeagley (2012), Ziwei Xiao (2014), Antonia Link (2015), Scarlett Mengfei Ying (2016), Lauren Kelley (2018)

Firm Name: Cocuzza & Associati (<http://www.cocuzzaeassociati.it>)

Location: Milan, Italy

Symplicity Job # 14742

Description of Firm: Cocuzza & Associati is a mid-size law firm located in Milan, the business capital of northern Italy. The firm represents both Italian and non-Italian clients, primarily corporate entities engaged in a great variety of business fields. They are engaged in a broad range of legal work with emphasis on: commercial transactions, corporate matters, merger and acquisition, labor law, real estate transactions, competition and antitrust, national and international litigation before Italian Courts and domestic and foreign Arbitral Tribunals.

Description of Internship: Cocuzza & Associati's aim is to provide global interns with experiences to better understand practical issues of the legal profession: working directly under the partners, interacting with global clients, writing documents on current legal issues, translating documents. Assignments will include legal research and the drafting of documents. The intern will be integrated into the law firm.

Length of Internship: Position begins in June and is available for a period ranging from 1 to 2 months.

Stipends and Benefits: No wage. Cocuzza & Associati may provide a token to cover travel expenses (usually in the range of Euro 500).

Qualifications: Student must have very good Italian language skills (both spoken and written).

Primary Contact: Alessandro Barzaghi, Partner (GL'03)

Previous Penn Law Interns: Joseph Nance (2010), Meredith Craven (2011), Jessica Falzone (2012), Maria Cardi (2013)

Firm Name: The International Law Committee (ILC) of the Philadelphia Bar Association and Bar of Lyon

Location: Lyon, France

Symplicity Job # 14765

Description of Employer: The International Law Committee (ILC) of the Philadelphia Bar Association and Bar of Lyon

Location: Lyon, France

Description of Business: The International Law Committee (ILC) of the Philadelphia Bar Association has a twinning relationship and exchange program with the Lyon Bar. JD students interested in working as a law firm intern in Lyon, France should submit their materials (cover letter, resume, and transcript). Interns must be student-members of the Philadelphia Bar Association and will need to submit proof of membership. To become a student member of the Philadelphia Bar Association, please follow the link below: <https://www.philadelphiabar.org/page/BecomeAMember>

Description of Internship: The ILC will try to match the student's experience and interests with the practice focus of the law firm. Final selection anticipated by March 15 with placement information provided to the intern by March 31.

Length of Internship: June and July

Stipends and Benefits: Unpaid

Qualifications: Basic French competency is needed to benefit from the experience. Interviews will be required prior to final selection.

Primary contacts: Danielle Jouenne and Michael E. Scullin

Previous Penn Law Interns: Elizabeth Webb (2014), Jennifer Lee (2016), Henry Agee (2017), Andrew Timmick (2019)

Firm Name: Kim & Chang (<http://www.kimchang.com>)

Location: Seoul, Korea

Symplicity Job # 14745

Description of Firm: Kim & Chang is Korea's largest and most specialized law firm with a premier global practice. Since 1973, we continue to advise the world's leading companies and financial institutions. Based in Seoul, we are a full service law firm with over 1,500 dedicated professionals, including Korean and foreign-licensed lawyers, tax lawyers, patent and trademark attorneys, accountants, and other subject matter and industry experts. Having advised in the majority of major transactions, projects, and cases in Korea, we have earned an unrivalled track record for developing innovative solutions to the increasingly complex legal challenges that our clients face, both in Korea and increasingly overseas.

Description of Internship: Kim & Chang has a well-established clerkship (internship) program for law students to play a meaningful role in firm matters. Our clerkship program is designed to provide law students with training and insight into working at a premier law firm in Korea specializing in international transactions and legal matters. Law students are expected to engage in work similar to that performed by a first- or second-year associate at the firm, such as drafting memoranda, preparing transaction documents, and conducting due diligence. In addition to learning from work assignments, clerks can also benefit from the workshops, lectures, and social events planned throughout the summer that will enable you to socialize with lawyers and other clerks.

Length of Internship: maximum 2 months beginning in mid-May or early June.

Stipends and Benefits: Gross stipend is 2.3 million Korean won per month (subject to change). We also provide economy class round trip airfare provided that clerks are able to work with us for a period of at least 8 weeks.

Qualifications: Our clerkship program is mainly geared towards accommodating first year law school students. In our selection process, we pay close attention to academic achievement, personal experiences, and enthusiasm, searching for bright and personable people who are willing and committed to work in a cooperative environment.

Primary Contacts: Hea-Kyung Lee, Clerkship Program Coordinator

Previous Penn Law Interns: Elliot Choi (2015), Yonghwan Kwon (2016), Simon Sangyun Lee (2018) Matthew Park (2019)

Firm name: Law Quest (<http://lawquestinternational.com>)

Location: Mumbai, India

Symplicity Job # 14759

Description of Firm: LawQuest is a professional legal services firm based in Mumbai, India that specializes in Global Migration Law, Intellectual Property Law, Real Estate Law, Employment, Transaction and Contract and Family Law. LawQuest attorneys are equipped to handle varied aspects of legal work for clients ranging from individual entrepreneurs and start-ups to multinational companies seeking to expand in India. Clients engage LawQuest to obtain quality legal services and customized client-centric solutions. Our cross country and cross region networks enable us to render seamless assistance to clients regardless of their location. LawQuest was voted the Immigration Law Firm of the Year in both 2010 and 2011. Poorvi Chothani (GL'03) is the managing partner.

Description of Internship: LawQuest welcomes summer interns to support attorneys, giving them an opportunity to understand the practical issues of the legal profession. The intern will be given an opportunity to work with other partners and associates to gain substantive knowledge and assume responsibilities.

Length of Internship: The position will be available for a period of 2 months from June 15 to August 15.

Stipends and Benefits: We will provide a stipend of INR 12,500 rupees per month.

Qualifications: The ideal candidate should be self-motivated, with an open mind and ability to adapt to India.

Primary Contact: Rita Batra, Office Manager

Firm Name: Lembeye & Cía (<http://www.lembeye.cl/>)

Location: Santiago, Chile

Symplicity Job # 14736

Description of Firm: Lembeye & Cía. is a boutique law firm in Chile. Its strong international practice covers areas including Mergers and Acquisitions (is highly qualified in areas of cross-border transactions and project development and finance). Further areas covered include Corporate Law, Banking, Securities, Energy and Regulated Markets. The firm's attorneys have graduated from the most prestigious Chilean universities, and have earned postgraduate degrees awarded by first-rate universities in the United States. A proportion of these have also practiced law in major business centers, including New York and Miami.

Description of Internship: In determining the area and substance of the intern's work, account will be taken of the projects currently being undertaken at Lembeye & Cía. and the qualifications and interests of the intern. Interns are typically requested to undertake tasks under the supervision of a partner or senior associate. The assignments can range from assisting with the research and preparation of comparative legal studies to assisting with the preparation and drafting of official documents, including conducting related preparatory research. The aim is to provide global law students with training and insight into working at a law firm specialized in M&A, Finance, Banking and Corporate Law related to Latin America.

Length of Internship: 6 to 8 weeks

Stipends and Benefits: US$ 375 per week

Qualifications: Interns must be fluent in Spanish. Applications must contain university transcripts, resume, and a short essay in Spanish (about 150-250 words) outlining the applicant's motivation for doing an internship in Chile.

Primary Contact: Jorge Lembeye, Partner (GL'08)

Previous Penn Law Intern: Stephanie Margulies (2010)

Firm name: Llinks Law Offices
Location: Beijing, China
Symplicity Job # 18007

Description of Firm: Llinks Law Offices is a leading PRC law firm with a nationwide and international practice. With offices in Shanghai, Beijing and Hong Kong, we aim to help our clients achieve their business goals and provide professional services of the highest caliber, combining technical excellence with commercial awareness and a practical, constructive approach to legal issues. Since its founding in 1998, Llinks has consistently been at the forefront of developments in China's legal service market. Llinks has guided many international institutions and multinational corporations through the Chinese legal system, and helped them obtain protection under Chinese law. Llinks' technical skills, imagination and creativity have made it China's leading law firm in asset management, banking and finance, capital markets/corporate finance, corporate and commercial, dispute resolution, financial institutions, intellectual property, mergers and acquisitions, private equity/venture capital, real estate, restructuring, insolvency and bankruptcy, and taxation/customs.

Description of Internship: This program will give these students the opportunity to work alongside Llinks Law lawyers, participate in transactions ongoing at the time of the internship, conduct due diligence, perform legal research, and draft and translate various types of documents. They also have the opportunity to attend court proceedings and assist attorneys with various administrative tasks at various government offices and regulatory agencies. The required skills to work at the firm are good writing in English, teamwork skills and intellectual curiosity.

Length of Internship: We discourage internships for less than 8 weeks. However, we are open to discuss a shorter term, in case the student is unable to complete the 8-week program.

Stipends and Benefits: The position is unpaid.

Application Requirements: Interested candidates please submit (i) resume and (ii) cover letter.

Primary Contact: Yang Yuhua

Firm Name: Luthra and Luthra (<http://www.luthra.com>)

Location: New Delhi, Mumbai, Bangalore, India

Symplicity Job # 14760

Description of Firm: Luthra & Luthra Law Offices is a 'full service' premier national law firm. The Firm enjoys the unique distinction of being India's first ISO 9001-2000 certified law firm, which is a reflection of the high quality standards maintained by it. With a total of 25 partners for Corporate, 19 partners for Litigation and over 250 lawyers qualified in multiple jurisdictions, each of whom is supported by a dedicated team of paralegal and other technical, administrative and financial staffs; Luthra & Luthra is one of the largest law firms in India.

Description of Internship: The interns are expected to assist the lawyers in analyzing, researching, drafting, proof read documents etc. relating to various matters.

Length of Internship: 4-8 weeks starting June

Stipend & Benefits: No stipend is provided for interns. They are also accepted to make all arrangements for the duration of their stay.

Qualifications: Students pursuing a 3 year course, completed 1 year. This is in the interest of both the firm as well as the intern, that the intern be exposed to the subjects which she/he will be expected to know during the internship.

Primary Contact: Ms. Khusboo Chester, Human Resources

Firm name: PwC | Melli Darsa & Co., Advocates & Legal Consultants
(<http://www.pwc.com/id>)

Location: Jakarta, Indonesia

Symplicity Job # 18008

Description of Firm: P w C | Melli Darsa & Co. Since its inception, MDC has worked seamlessly with most major global/foreign firms who are active in the region. The firm has managed to carve a name for itself in the legal industry in Indonesia handling some of the most high profile and complex transactions coming out of Indonesia in recent years. Some of the accolades already received by MDC at the time of publication include 'Firm of the Year for Capital Market, Corporate & M&A and Alternative Investment Fund' during the year 2011 from Asian Counsel, as well as 'Indonesian Law Firm of the Year' from the International Financial Law Review for the year 2007 and 2009. Most of the partners of MDC are acknowledged as the leading individuals in their respective areas of expertise. The firm recently advised Morgan Stanley Asia and UBS AG as initial purchasers on the issuance of senior notes by Alam Synergy worth $235m.

Description of Internship: Work will include legal research, letter writing, and memo drafting.

Length of Internship: We discourage internships for less than 8 weeks. However, we are open to discuss a shorter term, in case the student is unable to complete the 8-week program.

Stipends and Benefits: The position is unpaid.

Application Requirements: Interested candidates please submit (i) resume, (ii) cover letter

Primary Contact: Ibu Jety, please address your cover letter to Mrs. Melli Darsa

Firm name: Nishimura & Asahi (<http://www.jurists.co.jp/en/>)

Location: Tokyo, Japan

Symplicity Job # 14761

Description of Firm: Nishimura & Asahi (<http://www.jurists.co.jp/en/>) is currently accepting applications for its Summer Program in Tokyo, Japan. Nishimura & Asahi is one of Japan's premier full-service law firms, covering all major aspects of domestic and international business and corporate activities. With approximately 590 Japanese and foreign lawyers, over 600 support staff members and offices in Tokyo, Osaka, Nagoya, Fukuoka, New York, Beijing, Shanghai, Hanoi, Ho Chi Minh City, Singapore, Jakarta, Bangkok and Yangon, Nishimura & Asahi is the largest law firm in Japan, employing a team of tax accountants on a full-time basis, and employing one of the largest teams of paralegals in Japan. Nishimura & Asahi has been repeatedly recognized by international legal publications such as Legal 500 Asia Pacific, Chambers Asia- Pacific and Chambers Global for the significance of its presence and its high level of legal services. We are looking forward to receiving applications from those aspiring law students with a keen interest in specializing in cross-border practice of law with a focus in Asia.

Description of Internship: Participants in the Summer Program will be supporting both senior and junior attorneys at the firm in international and foreign matters. They can look forward to, among other things, assisting attorneys with drafting work, coordination with co-counsel and clients in international cases, and legal research. Past participants have worked in fields such as antitrust, bankruptcy, international litigation and arbitration, crisis management (including, among other things, white-collar crime), M&A and joint ventures, finance, and corporate transactions. The firm also offers several social and recreational events, ranging from baseball games to visits to the Japanese Supreme Court, to give foreign summer associates a chance to meet Nishimura & Asahi attorneys from other departments and to expose them to both Tokyo and the legal culture of Japan. We are looking forward to receiving applications from those aspiring law students with a keen interest in specializing in cross-border practice of law with a focus in Asia.

Length of Internship: Summer associates will spend a minimum of four (4) weeks and a maximum of eight (8) weeks between late May and early September. The length of summer program for each summer associate will be determined on an individual basis at the time of hiring, considering the firm's summer hiring needs and the summer associate's scheduling needs.

Compensation: JPY 125,000.- per week. Also, see below for possible adjustments.

Other Benefits:

- Economy class roundtrip air ticket between Philadelphia and Tokyo.
- The firm may assist you with lodging accommodations upon request, and the compensation above may be adjusted factoring in the housing assistance provided by the firm.
- Qualifications:
- 1L & 2L Students at University of Pennsylvania Law School.
- Conversational Japanese language skills desirable, business level proficiency highly desirable but not necessary.
- Strong analytical and legal writing skills in the English language required.
- Knowledge and command of other Asian languages a plus but not at all required.
- Strong interests in Japan for its business, culture, and language highly welcome.

Submission Deadline: Applicants should consider the cover letter as their "personal statement" for application, clearly laying out the reasons for his/her application to the Summer Program and the required abilities that the applicant possesses. Once an application is submitted, Nishimura & Asahi Summer Hiring Committee will contact the applicant to set up an interview(s) through a proper venue such as by telephone or Skype.

Primary Contact: Hajime Ueno, Partner, Summer Hiring Committee

Previous Penn Law Interns: Irene C. Lu (2012), Alexandra Perry (2013), David S. Park (2014), Nathan Schwarz (2015), Ren-Ann Wang (2016), Dylan Lojac (2017), Katrina Kaczynski (2018), Germaine Grant (2019)

Firm name: P.R.I.M.E. (www.primefinancedisputes.org)

Location: The Hague, The Netherlands

Symplicity Job # 28388

Description of Placement: P.R.I.M.E. Finance is an international not-for-profit organization that specializes in complex financial transactions (www.primefinancedisputes.org). P.R.I.M.E. Finance is based in the Peace Palace in The Hague and was established to assist in the resolution of disputes involving complex financial transactions. It is dedicated to promoting a more sophisticated approach to financial market dispute settlement. P.R.I.M.E. Finance has international and U.S.-based judges on its Expert Panel, as well as leading experts in finance and the international alternative dispute resolution/arbitration world.

Internship: Internship involves legal research, conference planning, drafting documents, and many other assignments that relate to the legal profession. The intern team is based in Rotterdam in the Netherlands.

Length of Internship: 8 weeks beginning in mid-May

Stipends and Benefits: Hiring a non-paid summer intern. Interns are asked to work 8 week and will be eligible for $5000 fellowship through Penn Law

Qualifications: Excellent writing, research and organisation skills required

Application Materials: cover letter, resume, writing sample

Primary Contact: Camilla Macpherson, Head of Secretariat P.R.I.M.E. Finance Foundation, c.macpherson@primefinancedisputes.org

Prior Penn Interns: Olivia Wu (2018), Conrad Pritzker (2019)

Firm name: SyCip Salazar Hernandez & Gatmaitan (www.syciplaw.com)

Location: Makati City (Manila), Philippines

Symplicity Job # 14762

Description of Firm: Founded in 1945, SyCip Salazar Hernandez & Gatmaitan is one of the most established law firms, and the largest, in the Philippines. With offices in four cities, its practice covers all fields of law. The broad range of its expertise is reflected in its client base, which includes top local and foreign corporations, international organizations and governments. SyCipLaw has repeatedly been named the Philippines' National Law Firm of the Year by the International Financial Law Review and other publications and organizations. Its representative list of clients includes Chevron Texaco, General Electric, Citicorp, Bank of America, Goldman Sachs, Credit Suisse, HSBC, Japan Bank of International Cooperation, McDonald's, Bank of China, American Express, Asian Development Bank, Wyeth, First Pacific, NTT Communications, Temasek Holdings and the government of the United States of America. It regularly hosts law interns from throughout the Asia Pacific region, Europe and the United States.

Description of Internship: A foreign intern is assigned to a mentor, usually a senior associate in the intern's preferred practice area, who will oversee the intern's work at SyCip Law and will ensure that the intern is reasonably busy and is getting skill or level-appropriate assignments. The foreign intern also attends legal staff meetings conducted by SyCip Law's various practice groups.

Length of Internship: Maximum of two months.

Stipends and Benefit: SyCip Law does not provide compensation although foreign interns receive free lunch and a nominal stipend of approximately $50 per week. SyCip Law will also reimburse the foreign intern for transportation expenses incurred in connection with work.

Primary Contact: Simeon Ken R. Ferrer, Esq., Partner and Chairman, Hiring Committee

Previous Penn Law Intern: Alicia Zhang (2014), Matt Swanson (2018)

Firm name: Wiener.Soto.Caparrós (<http://www.wsclegal.com>)

Location: Buenos Aires, Argentina

Simplicity Job # 14814

Description of Firm: Launched in 2010, Wiener.Soto.Caparrós is a highly-qualified team of 25 professionals, including attorneys admitted to practice in Argentina, the U.S., France and Brazil. The firm's core focus is legal support services to multinational businesses with operations in Argentina and elsewhere in Latin America. The firm is multijurisdictional, multicultural and gender-diverse.

Attorneys of the firm specialize in corporate law, banking and finance law, mergers & acquisitions, antitrust law, taxation and trade, litigation, employment law and insolvency law. We advise on cross-border investments and activity between common law and civil law jurisdictions. In addition, attorneys of counsel to the firm specialize in administrative law, intellectual property, and "white-collar" criminal law. For more information about the Firm please visit www.wsclegal.com.

Description of Internship: Every year Wiener.Soto.Caparrós welcomes two to three JD students as legal interns during the northern hemisphere's summer months (May-August). The program offers students the opportunity to work alongside WSC lawyers, participating in transactions ongoing at the time of the internship, conducting due diligence, performing legal research, and drafting and converting legal work-product from Spanish to English (which goes beyond mere "translating"). Students also have the opportunity to attend court proceedings and assist attorneys with various administrative tasks at various government offices and regulatory agencies. The required skills to work at the firm are fluency in spoken Spanish, good writing in English, teamwork skills and intellectual curiosity.

Length of Internship: We recommend a minimum eight-week commitment to allow a meaningful experience, though exceptions may be made to account for a student's exigent circumstances. We are flexible with the start and end dates of the internship, with a preference that the internship focus on the months of June and July.

Stipends and Benefits: We will provide the following financial compensation for the intern.

- A Moving Allowance of ARS 5,000 (five thousand Argentine pesos) paid to the student in full at the inception of the internship to help defray initial relocation costs.
- Airfare reimbursement of up to USD 1,500 (one thousand five hundred United States dollars) for one roundtrip ticket.

Housing Matters: Once the internship is made, the firm can assist with housing inquiries.

Visa Requirements: If the stay in Argentina is less than 90 days, students can enter Argentina on a tourist visa (no pre-travel requirement for U.S. citizens). Students may find further information at: www.embassyofargentina.us. For non-U.S. persons, we can provide assistance with visa and related document inquiries.

Primary Contacts: Lara Muscolini

Previous Penn Law Intern: Matt Seller (2015), Ruth-Helen Vassilas (2016), Evan Shaver (2017)

Firm name: XXIV Old Buildings (www.xxiv.co.uk)
Location: London, England
Symplicity # 14763

Description of Firm: XXIV Old Buildings is a leading barristers' chambers based in England. Its members provide specialist advocacy and legal advice in relation to commercial and chancery litigation and arbitration both in England and worldwide. XXIV Old Buildings is particularly known for its pre-eminence in offshore litigation.

Description of Internship: The intern will shadow barristers at work and, as appropriate, have the opportunity to assist in the preparation of their cases for trial. It is anticipated that there will be opportunities to attend court and/or arbitral hearings with counsel, attend meetings with solicitors and clients and undertake appropriate legal research.

Length of Internship: Negotiable, but no more than 8 weeks.

Stipends and Benefits: English barristers are generally self-employed. As such compensation is unlikely to be available. The intern can, however, expect generous hospitality throughout the internship and assistance in locating suitable accommodation.

Qualifications: The intern will be bright, attentive and eager to learn as well as having an interest in litigation, particularly with an international flavor, and the areas of work in which XXIV Old Buildings specializes (as to which please visit <http://www.xxiv.co.uk/areas>).

Primary contact: Edward Cumming, barrister (LLM '05)

Previous Penn Law Interns: Alexandra Theobald (2013), Nina Shaw (2014), Eamon Kenny (2015), Alex Greene (2017), Carter Maguire (2018), Alex Perry (2018)

Firm Name: Yulchon LLC
Location: Seoul, Korea
Symlicity Job # 27410

Description of Firm: Having celebrated its 20th anniversary in 2017, Yulchon is a full-service firm of more than 450 attorneys and other professionals, including more than 60 attorneys qualified to practice in the U.S. or other jurisdictions outside of Korea. Yulchon advises on a full range of specialized practice areas, including corporate and finance, antitrust, tax, real estate and construction, dispute resolution, intellectual property, and labor and employment. The firm represents clients across six continents and has helped companies expand around the globe. Our recent recognitions include the “Most Innovative Asia Pacific Law Firm” by the Financial Times in 2018, “South Korea Law Firm of the Year” by Chambers & Partners in 2017 and “Asian Law Firm of the Year” by The Asian Lawyer in 2016.

A key to Yulchon’s success is that the firm actively recruits and trains skilled attorneys from the U.S. and other international jurisdictions. Constituting approximately 20% of the attorneys at Yulchon, foreign-licensed attorneys play leading roles in providing high-quality service to our multinational clientele.

Description of Internship: Yulchon’s summer internship program is similarly distinguished. We recruit highly motivated and accomplished participants, offer competitive compensation and round-trip air fare, and provide opportunities to make meaningful contributions to interesting projects in a professional and collegial environment.

Qualifications: The priority deadline is December 31 and hiring decisions are made on a rolling basis. To apply, please send your resume, a writing sample (if available), transcript and a cover letter to our Recruiting Team at the following email address: recruit@yulchon.com. Yulchon LLC will also accept applications as a GLFP placement.

Primary Contact: Ms. Hyen Kyoung Hwang