Congratulations on the accomplishments of your academic career. As your first semester of law school comes to an end, you will start to contemplate where to begin your career as an attorney. Let us introduce you to the people and practices of Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. and Norton Rose - two law firms with different strengths and complementary cultures - who will combine practices on June 1, 2013. We will host receptions in our Dallas and Houston offices and hope that you will join us.

Dallas, Texas
Wednesday, January 2, 2012
5:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

“After the combination, there will be less than a handful of law firms with global reach, depth and breadth of this quality.” Ward Bower, Principal of the leading U.S.-based legal consulting firm Altman Weil, Inc.

Tony Williams, Principal of Jomati Consultants in London and a former Managing Partner of Clifford Chance, commented, “This is a market-changing combination. The combined firm’s strength and depth is something that others will try hard to emulate. But, as a first mover, it will be a hard act to follow.”

► Norton Rose Fulbright will have 55 offices worldwide and 3,800 lawyers
► Top 10 global legal practice by gross revenue and number of lawyers
► Fulbright was recognized by BTI on their 2012 BTI Survey of Law Firm Client Service Performance as a part of the Client Service A-Team, which includes the top ranking Fortune 1000 serving firms based on client ratings. (2012)
► For the eleventh consecutive year, Corporate Board Member recognized Fulbright as one of the best corporate law firms. (2012)
► Norton Rose was awarded as the Number 1 firm where lawyers would like to work by Legal Week. (2012, 2011)
► International Law Office awarded Norton Rose with the Client Choice Award (international category). (2012)

WHY FULBRIGHT

“We know law school can be challenging, but the rewards that are awaiting the best and the brightest are tremendous. With offices around the world and some of the premier legal minds in the business, we can provide you with a path that will lead to success.”

Ms. Gerry Lowry,
