Bracewell & Giuliani LLP invites 1L students with diverse backgrounds to apply for a nine-week Fellowship to be split between Bracewell & Giuliani LLP and New York Life Insurance Company. Qualified students who will complete their first year of law school in Spring 2013 are encouraged to apply. Diversity is a broad concept that includes, but is not limited to race, national origin and sexual orientation.

The Fellow will gain hands-on experience in a broad range of practice areas including, but not limited to, the following:

- Corporate
- Litigation
- Energy & Infrastructure
- Finance
- Financial Restructuring
- Broker-Dealer Regulatory
- Tax
- Antitrust

The Fellowship will take place this Summer (2013) with the Fellow spending five weeks, beginning on May 28, in the New York office of Bracewell & Giuliani LLP, and then four weeks at New York Life Insurance Company’s New York office beginning on July 1. The Fellow will be compensated in the form of a weekly stipend in the amount of $3,077 for each of the nine weeks, but in all events no less than the weekly amount being paid by the New York office of Bracewell & Giuliani LLP to its 2013 Summer Associates. The successful Fellow will, upon satisfactory completion of the Fellowship, be considered for a 2014 Summer Associate position at Bracewell & Giuliani LLP.

Candidates will be evaluated based on their academic achievement, writing skills, interpersonal skills and interest in practicing law in the New York area. Candidates must comply with the human resources requirements of both Bracewell & Giuliani and New York Life Insurance Company, which may include, but not be limited to, background checks and drug testing.

Interested candidates should send their resumes and transcripts, along with a one-page cover letter describing their interest and summarizing their experience. All applications will be reviewed and accepted until February 28, 2013.

Application materials and questions regarding the program should be submitted to Julia Mabin, Professional Resources Coordinator, at julia.mabin@bgllp.com. (Please indicate Bracewell & Giuliani Joint Diversity Fellowship in the subject line.)
