Dear Prospective Job Fair Participant:

The National Black Prosecutors Association (NBPA) cordially invites you to participate in our Annual Job Fair on Tuesday, July 31, 2012 at the Roosevelt New Orleans in New Orleans, Louisiana. The goal of the National Black Prosecutors Association’s (NBPA) Job Fair is to promote diversity in prosecutors’ offices by providing a forum where law students, recent law graduates, and experienced attorneys from across the nation can meet and interview with prospective prosecutorial employers at the local, state, and federal levels.

The NBPA, established in 1983, is a professional member organization comprised of over 800 prosecutors. Our mission is to recruit, train, and advance the careers of minority attorneys as prosecutors at all levels of government. Our annual convention serves, not only as a job fair forum, but as a comprehensive legal training program for prosecutors. This year’s 29th annual conference will run from July 29, 2012 to August 4, 2012.

The Job Fair begins at 8:00 am with registration and check-in; interviews commence at 9:00 am. At the culmination of the Job Fair, there will be a reception for all Job Fair participants and Convention attendees. The reception will afford Job Fair attendees an additional opportunity to further network with prospective employers and experienced prosecutors. The early registration fee for the Job Fair is $25.00 for law students and 2012 law school graduates, and $50.00 for experienced attorneys. After June 8th, the regular Job Fair registration fee is $50.00 for law students and 2012 law school graduates, and $75.00 for experienced attorneys.

In addition to the Job Fair reception, all Job Fair participants are invited to attend a free career seminar entitled “Strategies for a Successful Interview”. The seminar will take place on Monday, July 30th from 4:30 pm to 5:30 pm at the Roosevelt New Orleans, and will provide Job Fair participants with effective interviewing techniques.

Job Fair attendees are also welcome to attend the entire conference. Students and 2012 law school graduates are invited to attend Conference seminars for free. However, other events, such as luncheons, dinners and receptions, must be paid for separately. For experienced attorneys and/or licensed attorneys who are members of the NBPA, the conference registration fee is $430.00; $580.00 for experienced attorneys who register by Friday, June 29, 2012. Beginning June 30th, conference registration increases to $555 for members of the NBPA and for experienced attorneys who are not members of NBPA.
the fee increases to $705.00. The experienced attorney conference registration fee includes all seminars, luncheons, dinners and receptions as well as the Job Fair.

To register for the Job Fair, please complete the attached applicant registration form and submit it along with a resume and a check for the appropriate fee payable to the NBPA 29th Annual Conference. You may also register for the conference and job fair online with a credit card at www.blackprosecutors.org.

If lodging is needed, the Roosevelt New Orleans has extended a special Job Fair room rate for students of $99.00 per night for a single or double room for July 31st and August 1st. The number of rooms available at this special rate is limited, so book early! To make reservations, contact the Roosevelt New Orleans directly at (504) 648-3434. Only registered Job Fair participants will be able to take advantage of this rate.

Attached is a list of employers who participated in previous Job Fairs. Additional information about the NBPA and its conference is available at www.blackprosecutors.org. If you have any questions or would like more information, please contact me at 212-335-4205 or NBPAJobFair2012@dany.nyc.gov. I look forward to seeing you in New Orleans.

Sincerely,

Audrey Moore
